

Social Worker in Schools

Fulltime position

If you are a qualified Social Worker, are community minded and want to work within a whanau-focussed organisation, we want you.

TCOSS is social service provider within the South Waikato district and we are seeking a creative, adaptable, innovative social worker who works well with both children and adults to help us attain our mission: to transform and empower whanau to reach their fullest potential, so they may grow and flourish in all aspects of their lives.

As a Social Worker in Schools you will be working within a cluster of three schools. Te Reo Maori is not a requisite for the position but an understanding of tikanga Maori would be advantageous.

A Position Description and Application are available by contacting:
